Republican ranks makes the stories of disenglons circulated by Democratic papers too ridiculous to deceive even the Demo-

The statement that the Cincinnati Volksblatt had gone over to the Democrats and would carry a large German vote with it is emphatically denied by its owner, Colonel Markbrelt Chairmac Jones, of the Republican Na-

party issue, and that the Republic in party prizes in the grash of the conspirators are would be found solldly under the hanner | of Protection

If all the removals and changes at third and fourth class postoffices are made "in the interest of the public service. It is a Chicago last November aroused the indig little singular that it is always Republi nation of a whole people. This deed sinks cans who are put out and lovariably Demcrats who are put in

Ex-Secretary Chindler deales that he ever acted as counsel for John Roach before Secretary Robeson or any other naval authority This, however, will not prevent Democratic organs from going on with their lies about Mr. Chandler

An employe of John Roach went to Gar rett Roach the other day and said "Mr Roach I have been a Democrat all my life. but since this Covernment orusade has begun on your father I have been thinking over the fact that Dimocrat and damas tion begin with the same letter, and I have east my last vote for that party

The new Democratic postmaster at Bultimore has notified all the female clocks in the office that their services will be dispensed with after September thirtleth. In this case the order of things has been reversed and these clerks are dismissed because they are not partisans. Voles is what the Bultimore reformer is looking

Gov Hondly, of Ohlo, snys the New York World (Dein), has come in for a fresh amount of press censure on account of his failure or neglect to issue a provinmation relative to the death of Gen Grant The omission is conspicuous bedause near gave birth to the great Urion General the very butterfly of flirtation and about equalpeople are inclined to feel specially offend ed by the Governor supposent discourtes;

Just now the Mugwump organs are de nouncing the postmaster of Indianapolis for a violation of the civil service law and should he be dismissed it would be a per fret God send to them, as they are findings It a very troublesome task to run a Demo-Administration on a civil service basis. If the charges are disulsaed which declare that the clean sweep that he has inaugurated was a grand achievement made solely in the interest of reform

The Washington correspondent of the statement 'Mr Randall will not accept a second-class chalrmanship, and it is no likely that anything more prominent will be tendered to him. In other words, there is an obvious intention on the part of the Carliale wing to snub the gentleman from Pennsylvania and it is not improbable that the Speaker himself will be a prime mover in the scheme ' When any faction Randall look out for lively times

The investigation of Postmaster Iones at Indianapolis is causing a great deal of hard feeling in the Democratic runks. There is not the least possible doubt that Mr. but he does not ling extraordinary to which goes out to him Hendricks has blusself dictated Mr. Jones, rather by a sort of 'affinity" to which course for he has a peatedly and openly they both yield with a relative degree of and so. With r is there any doubt that an indicate the smooth, crafty, scheming the removal of Mr Jones would precipi abbe was doubtless intended by the author tate an open breach between the two first, as the most striking figure in the remance, and the character is strongly outlined in the of Mr. Hendricks' warmest supporters Mr Hendricks' warmest supporters said to a newspaper correspondent "Mr Hendricks would be particularly pleased if Junes should be removed. There is no half way rivi) service husiness shout him. and he wants the Democrats to have the offices. In case lones is removed he will be more than willing to post before the party of the country at large as his chum

In the Postmaster General's celebrated confidential letter one of the unpardon able sins in Republican postmasters was any conjection with a newspaper In this respect as in all other festures of this sham reform policy what is inexcusable in the remarkably fine descriptive passages a Republican is the very thing that recommendas Democrat to the favorable consideration of the Administration. This was forcibly illustrated in the recent novel-writers to the excessive use of foreign change of Collector at Vermont where the Republican was removed for "offensive partisanship ' and his place filled by a member of the Democratic Vational Committee Mr Vilns also furnishes another practical illustration of the hyprocelsy that has characterized his administration of the Post Office Department in the removal of the postmaster at Wilkesbarre. Press, and the cloth binding is prettil and the appointment of a man, who is the ling on the crossed shields of France and eilttor and proprietor of a leading Democratic sheet and an intense partisan

Pension Commissioner Black has experienced some difficulty in Democratizing the Board of Examining Surgeons in Boston Dr Edward N Whitter makes public in an open letter to Mr. Black the reasons which influenced Dr Gavin and himself to decline to serve with Dr. Bartlett on the Boston Board of Examining Surgeons, accompanying the statement with a large amount of documentary evidence. In aubitance, he charges that in 1883 Dr. Bartlett, who was then examining physician for the Home Mutual Ald Association, was concerned in securing the issue of a policy of $5,000 on the life of John Fields, of Medford, assigned one half to Joseph Linnell, of Woburn, who paid the premiums, Fields having been for sometime far gone in consumption. He also, charges that Dr. Bartlett was discharged for untrustworthiness as examining physician of the Travelers' Insurance Company, and that his claim to be a graduate of the Harvard medical school is unitrue. Dr. Whittler states that he offered to the Commissioner full-facility in the country of this one day's Gen. Gra. private investigation of these diposating of this one day's Gen. Gen. Grant and his Comrades.

WHAT HE SAID OF BUERMAN, LOGAN SHERIDAN AND OTHERS

Wash Cor of the Hoston Journal] ' of the characteristics of the late General Grant has been the kindly maurer in which he has spoken of all of his old army associates. Since Gen. Grant's retirement from the Presidency probably no one can recall that he has said an unkind word of any human being. Even in that last chapter of his life, when he was that last chapter of his life, when he was made the victim of the raspala, Plah and Ward, no denunciation has ever, been toported as coming from him. The book of Gen. Sherman on the war, criticised, very unjustly many of Sherman's army compared with the compared of this one day; Gen. Grant add; I'll whose Sherman my optaion of the book. I told him the only pointail of the book. I told him the only pointail objected to were his criticisms upon, seems of the book. Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky says "Civil service reform is a fraud. I am one of the 17 Democrats who voted against it, and I have never seen the day that I would not yote for its repeal."

Gen Fiz-Rugh Lee has received the Democratic nomination for Governor in the State of Virginia. The contest will be an exciting one as the Bourbons of that State are ready and willing to resort to any measures to prevent Republican suc-

it of great falue as a bistory."

Gen Grant has lettion record this tribute to Sheridan. As for Sheridan, I have only known him since we met during the war. He foined my regiment—the lenth lufantry—after i left it, and so I did not see him. Then he is i much younger man than Sherukan or my felf, and did not serve in Mexico. Thu liftst time I remember meeting Sheridan wis when he was the Colonel of & Michigan Rogiment. We met at a railway station. He was about to remove his regiment to join some other General—I think Gorden Granger. I know! I had sent a regiment, but had not indicated that of Sheridan, and raily did not wish it to leave. I spoke to Sheridan and he said he would rather go than stay, or some such answer, which was brusque und rough, and annityed me I don't think Sheridan could have said anything to make a worse impression do me.

"But I watched his career and saw how much there was in him. So when I came East and took gomethed I looked around for a cavalcy commander. I was standing in front of the White House inking to Mr. Lincoln and Gen. Halicek. I said I wanted the beat man tool dind for the cavalry. Then, said Halicek, why not take Pri. Sheridan? So thereful have sent for and he came very much disguated. He was tand used us to the have a corps, and he did not know why he wanted him I hast, whe her
